LI Community Hospital President/CEO and Suffolk Resident Appointed Chair, Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council

August 24, 2022 (Hauppauge, NY) – Suffolk County resident and president/CEO of Long Island Community Hospital, Richard Margulis, was appointed the next board chair of the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council (NSHC) at the association's annual meeting held July 14, 2022. Margulis' two-year term ends July 2024.

Margulis has nearly four decades of healthcare administration experience. He served the hospital as its executive vice president/chief operating officer, senior vice president/chief operating officer, and vice president of operations, before being appointed to lead the hospital in 2013. From 1990 – 1996, he served as senior administrator of the South Brookhaven Family Health Centers and early in his career as program manager of Mental Health and Alcoholism at the health centers.

Recognized by the Long Island Business News as the recipient of both the 2015 Outstanding CEO and the 2021 Achievements in Health Care Leadership award, he was also acknowledged as one of Long Island's 100 Most Influential People for the Long Island Press 2021 Powerlist. He is a member of the American College of Health Care Executives, the Healthcare Association of New York State (HANYS) and the American Hospital Association (AHA), as well as the Molloy College Energeia Partnership.

Margulis holds an undergraduate degree in Healthcare Administration from St. Joseph's University and a master's degree in business administration from Dowling College.
