

Contact: Janine Logan, Senior Director, Communications and Population Health, at 631-334-8321

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

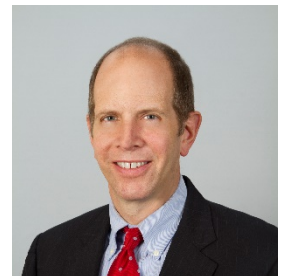

Stony Brook Southampton Hospital Executive Director, Suffolk Resident Named Chair of Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council

July 10, 2020 (Hauppauge, NY) – Suffolk resident and executive director of Stony Brook Southampton Hospital, Robert Chaloner, was named chair of the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council (NSHC) at the association’s annual meeting held July 9, 2020. Chaloner’s two-year term ends July 2022.

Chaloner has 35 years of healthcare administrative experience and has a strong passion for community hospitals. For more than 13 years, he has led Stony Brook Southampton Hospital.

A leader in healthcare management strategies, he teaches graduate management courses at Stony Brook University’s School of Health Technology and Management. He serves on the board of many healthcare and community service organizations. Chaloner is a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives where he served as an inaugural member and immediate past chair of the LGBTQ Forum.

Chaloner received his undergraduate education at Dartmouth College and his graduate degree in Health Management and Planning from Columbia University. He also holds a Master of Business Administration from New York University.

Robert Chaloner,
Executive Director,
Stony Brook
Southampton Hospital.
Photo credit: Stony Brook Medicine

###

About the Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council (NSHC)

The Nassau-Suffolk Hospital Council represents the not-for-profit and public hospitals on Long Island. It works in conjunction with the Suburban Hospital Alliance of New York State to advance legislative and regulatory priorities. NSHC serves as the local and collective voice of hospitals on Long Island.